Attached Fee Schedule — General Provisions

Terms 1 (Calculation Methods for Fees, etc.)

Fees, etc. shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Fee Schedule (hereinafter referred to as the “Fee Schedule”) and as otherwise separately specified by the Company.

2. The Company shall calculate the usage fees payable by the Subscriber under the Service Agreement on the basis of a Billing Month (meaning the period from the starting date of a calendar month (meaning a fixed day of each calendar month separately specified by the Company for each Service Agreement) through the day preceding the starting date of the following calendar month; the same shall apply hereinafter). However, when the Company deems it necessary, the Company may calculate such fees at any time without regard to the Billing Month.

3. If unavoidable for the performance of its operations, the Company may change the starting date of the Billing Month specified in the preceding paragraph.

Terms 2 (Rounding)

When, in calculating Fees, etc. or other amounts, a fraction of less than one yen occurs in the calculation result, the Company shall round down such fraction.

Terms 3 (Payment of Fees, etc.)

The Subscriber shall pay Fees, etc. by the following method:

(1) The method specified by the Company.

Terms 4 (Lump-Sum Payment in Arrears of Usage Fees)

If the Company has special circumstances, the Company may, upon prior notice to the Subscriber, require the Subscriber to make a lump-sum payment of usage fees for two or more months by the date designated by the Company.

Terms 5 (Advance Payment)

If the Subscriber so wishes, the Company may, in accordance with conditions separately specified by the Company, hold an advance payment for Fees, etc. to be charged by the Company. No interest shall accrue on such advance payment.

Terms 6 (Addition of Consumption Tax, etc.)

The amounts specified in the Fee Schedule as Fees, etc. payable pursuant to these Terms and Conditions shall be the amounts obtained by adding the amount equivalent to consumption tax, etc. specified in the “Fees” section of the Fee Schedule.

※ The amount of Fees, etc. that becomes payable pursuant to these Terms and Conditions may differ from the amount calculated based on the amount specified inclusive of the amount equivalent to consumption tax, etc.

Terms 7 (Temporary Reduction or Exemption of Fees, etc.)

In the event of a disaster or when there is a risk of a disaster occurring, the Company may temporarily reduce or exempt Fees, etc., notwithstanding the provisions of these Terms and Conditions.
